

Unit 4

Test Review

1. Write the following Roman numerals in Arabic numbers. (review)

- A. DXXXII 532
- B. LVII 57
- C. MMXLV 2045
- D. XIV 14
- E. C 100
- F. XC 90

2. Write the following numbers in Roman numerals. (review)

- A. 47 XLVII
- B. 2018 MMXVIII
- C. 53 LIII
- D. 294 CCXCIV
- E. 8 VIII
- F. 31 XXXI

3. For each of the following verbs, identify to which conjugation it belongs.

- A. misceō, miscēre 2nd
- B. cadō, cadere 3rd
- C. sonō, sonāre 1st
- D. audiō, audire 4th

4. Conjugate the following verb into present tense. Pay close attention to macrons!

lavō, lavāre: to wash
stem

	Singular	Plural
First Person	lavō	lavāmus
Second Person	lavās	lavātis
Third Person	lavat	lavant

note the short-a- in 3rd person

5. In the following sentences, label the subject, verb, and direct object.

- A. Sextum Cornēlia aestate vexat. DO S V
- B. Flāvia sub arbore epistulam legit. S DO V

6. Circle the word(s) that best complete the sentence.

- A. Dāvus est vir (Britannicus / Britannici).
- B. Puerī (laetus / laeti) ridet.

7. Write the following sentence in Latin. Give it your best shot!

- A. Sextus frightens Cornelia while Cornelia sleeps under the tree.
Sextus Cornēliam terret dum Cornelia sub arbore dormit.
- B. Marcus sees the weak branch and then approaches.
Marcus infirmum ramum et tum appropinquat.

videt

N.B.: The test will also include the usual vocabulary matching, plus a reading passage with true/false questions and animal vocabulary matching.